

Income from Self-Employment

Income		Cost of Goods Sold
Gross Sales (do not include sales taxes)		Inventory at 1/1/09
Returns/Credits		Purchases
Other Business Income		Cost of Labor used in Production
		Materials & Supplies used in Production
		Other Production Expenses
		Inventory at 12/31/09

Business Expenses		Expenses for Business Use of Your Home (see note below)
Advertising		Total square footage of your house
Dues, Fees & Commissions		Area of your house used exclusively for business or storage
Contracted Labor		Expenses Directly Related to your Business in the Home
Insurance (other than health)		Homeowners Insurance (rider for your business)
Mortgage Interest		Repairs and Maintenance
Other Interest (loans, etc.)		Other (describe)
Legal & Professional Services		General Home Expenses
Office Expenses		Home Heating and Electricity
Pension Plans		Garbage Disposal
Vehicle Equipment Rent		Homeowners Insurance
Office Space Rent		Repairs and Maintenance
Repairs & Maintenance		Water-Sewer
Postage		Internet (if used partly for business)
Supplies, Small Tools, Equipment		Other (describe)
Travel Expenses		Other (describe)
Meals/Entertainment		Did you purchase any capital assets for your business? <input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No
Utilities		Asset description	Date of Purchase
Wages Paid			Cost
Publications
Professional Education
Other (describe)
Other (describe)
Other (describe)
Other (describe)

Note on business use of your home: To qualify, your home office must be used exclusively and on a regular basis (a) as your principal place of business, or (b) by patients, clients or customers in meeting and dealing with you in the normal course of business. It will qualify as your principal place of business if: 1) you use it exclusively and regularly for the administrative or management activities of trade or business, and 2) you have no other fixed location where you conduct substantial administrative or management activities of your trade or business.

*If you used a vehicle in connection with your business, please fill out the "Vehicle and Travel" organizer.

*If you were in the business of renting property, please fill out the "Rental Income" organizer.